

Harborites Attend 30th Annual Camp Fire Meeting

Representatives of the Harbor District of the Los Angeles Camp Fire Girls were greeted by the Honorable Mayor Norris Poulson when they attended the 30th annual meeting and dinner of the Los Angeles Area Council of Camp Fire Girls.

Mayor Poulson expressed pride in the fact that he was at one time connected with the Los Angeles Board of Directors of Camp Fire Girls.

The meeting, attended by more than 300 persons from the Council, was highlighted by a talk by Margaret Lee Runbeck, author of numerous novels and magazine stories. Miss Runbeck's talk was a recollection of her experiences as a Camp Fire Girl.

Mrs. Leland J. Durfy, president of the Council, introduced the guests and later received the Luther Halsey Gulick award, the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a volunteer by the Community Chest. Mrs. Durfy's continued and constant service to Camp Fire earned for her this tribute.

Colored slides entitled "Jeweled Hours," which depicted activities of the Camp Fire Girls were narrated by the Rev. Clifford Moore, Hollywood Presbyterian Church.

Election and installation of officers, with Lawrence Helgeson, superintendent of Administration, Commission of Recreation and Parks, topping the list as president, concluded the meeting.

Attending from the Harbor District were Messrs. and Mesdames F. D. Dahl, L. J. Stevenson, O. D. Barnard, H. V. DeMott, William H. Averill, Mesdames Myron Preston, W. E. Woolheater, LeRoy Shore, Paul Goodrow, Benton Waldorf, Thomas G. Smith; and Miss Cynthia Keyes, staff executive for the district.

Sobadas Dance Next Saturday

Sobadas will dance next Saturday night, Feb. 27, at Club Alondra, Mrs. Laurence Derouin, one of the principals on the executive committee, announced this week.

"As this is strictly a money-maker for our season wind-up, a dinner-dance, in June, we are not having an orchestra," Mrs. Derouin continued. "Instead, music will be provided by records."

The dance club plans a "guest night" affair for March.
